Hi kids!

“And I'll be singing my songs
And it's giving me thrills
And they'll be singing along
And throwing twenty dollar bills
It's the traveling little circus
That we've all been dreamin' of
It's livin' like a gypsy
It's the life that I love
And I'm singing my songs
And they're singing along…

Happy August Parrots! Be careful kids, drink your water, don't overdo it, go find some shade. Lots of great ways to escape the heat in our lovely area. Belgian Monk is back open from a much deserved vacation, Portside Tavern is having a Birthday Bash on August 13th. The new Sunset Beach Club at Fisherman’s Village is a huge success. Check them out, especially when John Patti or Sunny Jim are playing. I'll be there! A trip down to Pine Island works, maybe some conch fritters and a cold beer at Bert's in Matlacha, go a little further and check out Low Key Tiki over in St. James City. Tell 'em “The Parrot” sent ya'. So from all the worker bees at The Parrot Magazine and the loyal phlock at the Charlotte Harbor Parrot Head Club, be they pirates, parrots, scalawags, wenches or barnacles, we wish you an August filled with fun, sun, frolic and shenanigans. Remember, “more egrets, no regrets…”.

It’s Time To Party With A Purpose

So, I'm still buzzing from my trip up to St. Augustine Beach with my new friends from the A1A Parrot Heads but as Social Director of the CHPHC I've got a job to do back here. July is a very special, somewhat bittersweet month for your CHPHC. It marks the anniversary of the eternal departure of our dear friend Jim Morris. It also marks our annual tribute to him, his music and his spirit. If you don't know...

Jim Morris was, quite simply, the “Godfather of Trop Rock” and celebrating the tropical lifestyle of our beautiful Charlotte County. During his 15-year corporate career, his job allowed him to live in several interesting locales, such as Mon-
Jim brought a new tropical, escapist sound to fans the world over. Not to be overlooked, Jim gave back through his charitable ventures. He found willing partners with the CPHHC and the two blended their efforts to help area children, especially through the “Shoes for Kids” program.

That brings us to July 12. This one of the finest “phlockings” we have ever had. It was a perfect evening to be outdoors. We were fortunate to have two of Jim’s old band mates, Jimi Pappas and John Patti provide us with several of his greatest songs as well as some of their wonderful originals. Now in July we have come to expect a bit smaller crowd just because of the heat and it being off season but not this night. The crowd stretched all the way back through both pavilions at Laishley Marina Park. Estimates were between 250 and 300 attendees! Remarkable! The charity of the month was of course Shoes for Kids and director Christy Smith was on hand to address the crowd and express their thanks. Final tally of donations was $4,000 including many pairs of new shoes! Special thanks to our corporate sponsor, the National Alliance for Mental Illness and the wonderful eats provided by The Cuban Connection.

That’s all folks, there is always so much happening with the CPHHC. Come on down and say “howdy”. I’m easy to find, I’ll be the one “smilin’ out loud”.

rina pavilions. These are open air events and we do not charge any admission fee. Each month we have a featured live performer from local favorites to nationally known recording artists. Free! If you’re a little shy you can just hangout and enjoy the music or approach us for membership information. No worries either way. Next one up is on August 9th. Musical Guest is Lefty Lucy and our charity is The Backpack Kidz of Charlotte County. These amazing people collect non-perishable food and fill backpacks up for kids to take home on weekends so that they have meals away from school. Another wonderful charity. For all the details check then out on our website at www.chphc.com.

If you haven’t stopped by Portside lately (or yet), this is the month to head that way! They’re celebrating their 60th anniversary! And while you’re there, you’ll likely meet Sherry. And you can’t miss her...she’s the one sparkling like sunshine and getting the party started!

Originally hailing from Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Sherry ventured to Charlotte County 12 years ago and never left. Of those years, she’s served up smiles and some of the best drinks in Port Charlotte! She credits the family atmosphere and the fun with keeping her coming back. “Every time I walk in, it’s a party! We have dance nights, karaoke nights...you can even find me on the dancefloor when I have a minute to get down. It’s always fun when I come to work!” She says, “I’ve been offered other jobs, but I quickly turn them down. This is my family, and we know how to have a blast!”

When she isn’t dancing behind the bar, you can find Sherry playing disc golf (she’s a huge enthusiast), playing tourist around town, hanging by the pool or playing with her dogs. But her favorite pastime is hanging with her Portside family! She says, “I’m living the dream! I think everyone should come join me”.

Not only does Portside have a gazillion different kinds of hot dogs, the area’s best handmade pizzas and amazing drinks (served by cute patooties like Sherry), their prices are wallet friendly. You’ll be hard pressed to find a better deal or more fun in the area!

So when you stop by, make sure you ask Sherry for one of her famous drinks:

White Gummy Sher Bear
Cherry Vodka, Peach Schnapps
Pineapple, Splash of Sprite

Sherry’s Trainwreck Shot
Malibu Rum, Crown Royal
Peach Schnapps

Three Daughters

Once there was a farmer that was very protective of his three daughters. When they told him that they were going to go out on dates one night, the farmer decided to wait outside with a shotgun. The first boy arrived for the first daughter, and he said, “Hi, my name is Freddy. I’m here for Betty. We’re going for spaghetti. Is she ready?” The farmer decided he was decent enough and let them go. The second boy arrived for the second daughter, and said, “Hi, my name is Joe. I’m here for Flo. We’re going to a show. Is she ready?” The farmer decided he was decent enough and let them go. The second boy arrived for the second daughter, and said, “Hi, my name is Joe. I’m here for Flo. We’re going to a show. Is she ready?” The farmer decided he was decent enough and let them go. Finally, the last boy came, and he said, “Hi, my name is Chuck...” and the farmer shot him.

Girlfriend

My girlfriend just dumped me. She said in a teary tirade: “I can’t take your shit anymore. You’re such a pedant. Everything I do is wrong. I loved you so much, but it’ll never be enough for you. I’m leaving now. Me and Gary are driving up north through the night and then you’ll never hear from me again.” She was about to close the door when I yelled “No, no...waaait!” She turned back, tears in her eyes, a glimmer of hope still remained. That was when I uttered those three magic words. “Gary and I”

At A Bar

A guy sits down at the bar and orders drink after drink. “Is everything okay, pal?” the bartender asks. “My wife and I got into a fight, and she said she wasn’t going to talk to me for a month.” Trying to put a positive spin on things, the bartender says, “Well, maybe that’s kind of a good thing. You know... a little peace and quiet?” “Yeah. But today is the last day...”

It is summertime - for many, that means - a vacation! Before Vikki and I transplanted to Florida, guess where we liked to vacation? You guessed it - Florida. The water always called us, and when it is ICED over 70% of the year in Wisconsin, there wasn’t much time to enjoy it. Even in the summertime, the water could be pretty frigid. Now we live in the state where everyone else wants to vacation. We don’t have to wait for vacation days to take off to different parts of the country. In Florida, it is easy to go “Day Trippin.” The weather is excellent, and with water nearby, we can go anytime we have a free day. We love the water so much. Water is our ‘happy place’ when we are on it, near it, or in it! That being said – we bought ourselves a boat, actually two of them. Well, not actually boats, more like kayaks and self-propelled.

Having our own kayaks allows us to pick up and go whenever we want, and gas isn’t even an issue. We are using our new toys to explore as much as possible. We have kayaked at Boca Grande, a great place to see dolphins and manatees. We checked out Washington Loop off Hwy 17 and put our boats in the water at Hathaway Park. Where we enjoyed a leisurely afternoon on the Peace River. We launched at Ponce De Leon Park in the PG Isles and enjoyed paddling around the canals for a few hours. It was too rough to venture into the harbor, but that is on the list.

Our latest trip took us a little further south as we headed to Matlacha. It’s a short drive out Burnt Store Road towards Cape Coral, then a right on Pine Island Drive, and you are in Matlacha. It is described as an island on a small spit of land between Cape Coral and Pine Island. It is a fishing village, population 677, with an ART problem. We did not go for the art this time; we explored the intercoastal waterway, paddled in the open water, and enjoyed the mangroves. We picked the perfect day, the water was like glass, and there was no boat traffic. It was easy to find a spot to jump out of the kayaks and take a dip to cool off as the summer heat started to climb.

We have explored the art community there on a few occasions. There are unique shops, restaurants, and boat rentals, and it is the home of Leoma Lovegrove Gallery & Gardens. A must-stop gallery. I call our kayak excursions Gilligan’s Island trips because we usually paddle around for a “3-hour tour.” That is about the limit for Vikki. Our trip would not be complete without stopping at one of the local pubs for a bite to eat, and of course, we have to re-hydrate. We decided to check out a PARROT advertiser, so we stopped at Bert’s Bar & Grill.

Bert’s Bar and Grill is located on the south side of the road. It’s very colorful and has a “million-dollar view.” Laura found us a seat looking out over that view. Bert’s Bar and Grill is one of the oldest buildings on the island of Matlacha. It is filled with history and has that “old Florida” charm.

Vikki and I both ordered the Blackened Grouper Sandwich. The grouper was falling out of the bun and quite delicious. The staff was friendly, and Laura took good care of us. Bert’s has a gift shop across the street with t-shirts and other unique items from the artsy fishing village. A must stop!

There are some Florida books there; Vikki and I will return to see if they will put “Welcome to Florida (WTF)” on the shelf. Have you purchased your copy yet? The book is available on all your favorite book sites. And yes, it is time to start writing the sequel - you can help! If you know a Literary Agent - please reach out. gregwinkler10@gmail.com

Thank you for joining us on this latest journey; it is time to select our next destination. Until next month - follow your dreams!
Combine oldies and Motown music and Southwest Florida listeners and you’re in for a fun experience. Still Rockin’ has been playing for about eight years now and plays songs mostly from the 50s to the 70s and the occasional modern tune thrown in for line dancers and country fans.

The music is chosen from the million-sellers so most of the audience knows every song and many sing along! It’s a lot of fun to hear stories about peoples’ association with a particular song or group. Many couples have “their song” and the band is always happy to try it. Not all are obvious though; they recently had a 60th Anniversary party where the featured song was “Let The Little Girl Dance”. They also know a couple whose special song was “Gimme Three Steps”. Sometimes it’s better not to ask...

Still Rockin’ is a throwback to the days of instruments, amplifiers and bowling shirts. Their audiences have said that a lot of the fun is to see the players live and get the personal experience that is lost in some of the more modern shows that use computers or pre-recorded parts. They mostly work in indoor places to keep the “sock hop” environment.

The musical community in Sarasota, Lee and Charlotte counties is one of the best in the country. From the acoustic events at local parks to many open mic events to organized performances there is always songs being played and, due to the ages of the residents, many players. They have had professionals with famous names join us at times. What a pleasure to work with them!

Mike Pizzi also sings and handles the keyboard work ranging from stride piano to soulful organ parts and everything in between. Mike studied at Berklee School of Music in Boston and also arranges many of the songs. Faith Davey plays bass guitar for the group. She is well-known around Southwest Florida and has played a wide variety of styles including country and oldies. In combination with Russ on drums, it’s a great drive section to support the vocals. Her comments included, “There aren’t many words to portray the feeling you get when playing great music with good friends.”

Mike Stillwaggon plays the guitar and sometimes keyboard. Pete sings the bass and baritone parts that drive many of the doo-wop and oldies songs. Originally from New England, Pete has also played a wide group of styles from calypso to klezmer. With Still Rockin’, the musicians job is to create a bed of sound to support the rich harmonies that were so popular with the original mid-century groups.

"It’s wonderful to keep this music playing and give our audiences memories of the past times”, says Stillwaggon, “These songs are timeless.”

Over the years they have developed a great group of friends that attend many shows per year. It’s like the old days where we get to play and them visit on the break times. Recently they found out that people who like to line dance will move to rock songs. Imagine a line dance to “Wooly Bully”? Happens every night.

Both Mike and Russ have played with or behind top groups like Casinos, Duprees, Dion, Hall And Oates and famously the Fools (a novelty group around Boston). In total, the group has about 150 years of experience and knowledge of so many songs that it’s easy to bring in new titles and sometimes play a song without rehearsal. One night we got a request for “Hang On Sloopy”. Each singer knew one of the verses so we sang it across the front line. The requester was so pleased with the song and the stage work that we never let on what actually happened. With live music, sometimes it’s easier to make it look like magic...

Their website is stillrockin.com and the schedule of events is listed into 2023. They are always happy to talk about new opportunities. They play at many of the local fraternal clubs as well as parties hosted by housing communities and celebrations of events like anniversaries and holidays. For further information, please contact Russ Bracco at (941) 400-1629 or Mike Pizzi at (941)223-6320.

Earlier this month, the petition period for our new Board of Directors passed without objection from our members, so the new Board is now officially elected and will be sworn in on September 1.

We do, however, want to thank Danny Nix Jr. for his service and engagement with the Board for the last six years, as his term will be ending soon. Danny, we appreciate your involvement very much and we do know that our “board family” will be seeing you again very soon.

Joining the Board as new directors will be Jacqueline Benjamin of Charlotte State Bank and Trust, Frank Ceresoli of The Wyvern Hotel, Carlton Hughes of Florida Premier Contractors, Zarita Mattox of Kingdom Life 0 Center of H.O.P.E. and Wendy Tirado of Dream Salon and Spa. Welcome to the “family” and we look forward to working with you as an integral part of our program of work.

Incoming Chair, Cherie George of Gettel of Charlotte County, has also selected her three Associate Directors to work along her. They are: Justin Brand of the Charlotte Community Foundation, Andy Romine of ShorePoint Health Punta Gorda and Ed Wotitzky of the Wotitzky Law Firm.

The Punta Gorda Chamber is very grateful to all those who were presented to the Nominating Committee for selection. It is very comforting to know that each year more candidates that are required get nominated, giving the committee a wide selection of excellent leaders to choose from.

A special thanks goes to Kathy Robinson of Centennial Bank, who chaired this year’s committee, along with Sue Randall of the Village Fish Market/Tamiami Tavern, Teresa Desguin of the Visual Arts Center, Nick Worden of Charlotte State Bank and Trust and Cheyenne Young of Wotitzky, Wotitzky, Ross, McKinley and Young P.A.

The acts include: Gator Wilderness Camp School (Music), David Obermier (Comedy), Salty Paws (Music), Kaitlyn Carey (Film), Rachel Struebing & Monica Babcock (Music), Marianne Lilly (Poetry), Zarita Mattox (Singer), Jackie Stover & Team (Dance), Deanna Peden (Singer), Jimmy & The Ghost Flames (Comedy), Benjamin Strunk (Drummer), Whitney Grace (Singer) and Isaac James (Piano).

IT’S ALMOST TIME TO CELEBRATE
Our big Chamber night of celebration will be Saturday, September 17, as we honor our leadership, our partners and announce our Businesses of the Year. Tickets are already available online at www.puntagordachamber.com under the Shop Chamber tab. Come join us and increase your business exposure “to it’s max.”

On this night, our Business of the Year awards will be handed out. Blues, Brews and BBQ is back in conjunction with our partners at Suncoast Beverage Group. On Saturday, October 22 from 3-6 pm, come to the History Park on Shreve Street, Punta Gorda for craft beer samplings, great music, great BBQ and so much more. Want the VIP experience? From 2-3 pm, get to enter the event one hour early to sample special VIP brews, selected for you!

The show will start at 7 pm. For wine aficionados, a wine and jazz tasting will be held from 5-6 pm that same day at the Event Center for $25 per person. Tickets for that event are on the chamber website. For further details, please contact the Chamber at 941.639.3720.

A full listing of our members and their events and promotions are ready for you to view on www.puntagordachamber.com Under Quick Links, click the Friday Facts icon and you’ll never be out of the loop.

Our office is open each day (M-F 9-4) for your convenience. Have you visited our offices recently? We are located at 252 W Marion Avenue, Punta Gorda and we have two rooms filled with every piece of literature you could possibly need to make your stay, your residence or your business more fulfilling than ever. Don’t forget, if you prefer, our website www.puntagordachamber.com has a new addition – our 2022 Member and Visitor Guide, which makes looking up our members and finding things to do even easier for you. The link you’ll find in the top right of our homepage. If you have any questions about our city, please do not hesitate to call us. We are here to help.

Irish Daughter
An Irish daughter returns back home after 5 years. Upon her return her father comes down heavily on her. “Where have ye been all this time, child? Why did ye not write to us, not even a line? Why didn’t ye call? Can ye not understand what ye put yer old Mother through?” The girl, crying, replied, “Dad... I became a prostitute.” “Ye what!? Get out a here, ye shameless harlot! Sinner! You’re a disgrace to this Catholic family.” “OK, Dad... as ye wish. I only came back to give mum this luxurious fur coat, title deed to a ten bedroom mansion, plus a 5 million savings certificate. For me little brother, this gold Rolex. And for ye Daddy, the sparkling new Mercedes limited edition convertible that’s parked outside plus a membership to the country club ... (takes a breath) ... and an invitation for ye all to spend New Year’s Eve on board my new yacht in the Riviera.” “What was it ye said ye had become?”, says Dad. Girl, crying again, “A prostitute, Daddy!” “Oh! My Goodness! Ye scared me half to death, girl! I thought ye said a Protestant! Come here and give yer old Dad a hug!”

More Shorts
I switched the labels on all my wife’s spices. I’m not in trouble yet, but the thyme is cumin. Millennial old folks’ homes are gonna be awesome! LAN parties, DnD nights, wheelchair races, having awesome songs from the 2000’s as our golden oldies! It’ll be great, especially if we can line up our work schedules!

As an American, it makes me so sad to see that nothing is made in the USA anymore. I just bought this new TV and it says “Built-in Antenna.” I don’t even know where that is.

A New Monk
A new monk arrives at the monastery. He is assigned the task of helping the other monks in copying the old texts by hand. He notices, however, that they are copying copies, and not the original books. So, the new monk goes to the head monk to ask him about this. He points out that if there was an error in the first copy, that error would be continued in all of the other copies. The head monk says, “We have been copying from the copies for centuries, but you make a good point, my son.” So, he goes down into the cellar with one of the copies to check it against the original. Hours later, nobody has seen him. So, one of the monks goes downstairs to look for him. He hears sobbing coming from the back of the

Girlfriends
A man had three beautiful girlfriends but didn’t know which one to marry. As a test, he decided to give each woman $5,000 to see how they would spend it. The first girlfriend went out and got herself a complete makeover. She told him, “I spent the money so I could look pretty for you because I love you so much.” The second went shopping and bought the man new golf clubs, an iPad and an 80-inch flatscreen television. She said, “I bought these gifts for you because I love you so much. The third woman took the $5,000 and invested it in the stock market, doubled her investment, returned $5,000 to the man and reinvested the rest. She said,” I am investing the rest of the money for our future because I love you so much, The man thought long and hard about how each of his girlfriends had spent the money, and then he decided to marry the one with the biggest tits.
cellar and finds the old monk leaning over one of the original books crying. He asks what’s wrong. “You fuckers”, he says, with anger and sadness in his eyes, “the word was celebrate!”

It Had To Be Australia
A gecko lizard is walking through the Australian bush, heading toward the river for a drink. On his walk he comes across a koala sitting in a gum tree, smoking a joint and stops for a chat. “Gidday, mate. What are you doing?” The koala replies, “Smoking a joint, come up and join me. It’s bloody good gear!” So the gecko climbs up and sits next to the koala and they share a joint. After a while the gecko says his mouth is now very dry and that he’s going to get a drink from the river. At the riverbank, the gecko is so stoned that he leans too far over and falls in. The current is quite strong, and he starts to float away. A crocodile sees this and swims over to the stoned gecko and helps him back to the shore. He then asks the lizard, “What’s the matter with you?” The gecko explains to the crocodile that he was sitting in the tree, smoking a joint with his new koala friend. He then explained how his mouth got dry, and that he was so wasted that, when he went to get a drink from the river, he fell in! The inquisitive crocodile says he must check out the stoned koala for himself. He walks into the bush and finds the tree where the koala is sitting in the fork of a gum tree, finishing a joint. The crocodile looks up and says “Hey, Koala, you got any more of that grass?” The koala looks down and says “DAAAAANG, DUDE…… how much water did you drink?”

Three Sisters Were All Getting Married
Mum was a bit worried about how their sex life would get started and made them all promise to send a postcard from the honeymoon with a few words on their first impressions of marital sex. The first girl sent a card from Hawaii two days after the wedding. The card said nothing but: “Nescafe”. Puzzled at first Mum went to her kitchen and got out the Nescafe jar. It said: “Great from beginning to end”. Mum blushed, but was pleased for her daughter. The second girl sent the card from the Maldives a week after the wedding and the card read: “Rothmans”. Mum now knew to go straight to her husband’s cigarettes to read from the pack: “Super strong King Size”. She was again slightly embarrassed but still happy for her daughter. The third girl departed for her honeymoon in New Zealand. Mum waited for a week. Nothing. Another week went by and still nothing. A month passed; still nothing. A card finally arrived from Auckland on which was written with shaky hand, “Air New Zealand”. Mum took out her latest travel magazine, flipped through the pages fearing the worst and finally found the ad for Air NZ. ‘Ten times a day, seven days a week, in all directions.’ MUM FAINTED!!!

Call The Dr.
A woman in her 90s calls her doctor and asks: “Doctor, where is the heart?” To which the doctor replies: “it is at the height of your left nipple” The elderly woman thanks the man and ends the call. A new day arrives and the doctor reads the headline of his newspaper “Elderly woman wants to commit suicide, shoots herself in the knee”

One Last Short
I’m emotionally constipated. I haven’t given a shit in days.
Testimonial:

I recently moved my insurance over to We Insure. They saved me over 30% on my policy. AND I now have better coverage, and I am with a much better company. Thank you to the team at We Insure!

Leo (July 23 - August 22) Sparks of inspiration will light a fire within you this month! Whether you’re daydreaming at your desk or embarking on an adventure, give yourself permission to let go of what’s expected of you.

Virgo (August 23 - September 22) Relationships will be easy and smooth as you find companionship with others.

Libra (September 24 – October 23) If you’re in a committed relationship, trying new things with your significant other can work wonders for your bond.

Scorpio (October 23 - November 21) Amazing things happen to your energy level this month. You feel energized, motivated, and ready to take on the day.

Sagittarius (November 22 - December 21) There are strong possibilities of finding your dream home. With a little luck, you can have the space of your dreams and start settling down, especially as family relationships become more peaceful. Practice self-care and put down roots.

Capricorn (December 22 - January 19) This is an excellent time for you, one in which you’ll find a great deal of strength in your emotions. Trust that your instincts are serving you well. You have nothing to lose by following your heart. This is an important time for you to rekindle dreams.

Aquarius (January 20 - February 18) New ideas and thoughts encourage personal growth. Keep exploring new ideas by doing more research.

Pisces (February 19 - March 20) Keep the good vibes going. This is the ideal time to try new things, start new projects, and go on adventures.

Aries (March 21 - April 19) You could be startled to find that your artistic talents, although dormant for a while, are called into service. A particular undertaking of those around you could benefit from your gift.

Taurus (April 20 - May 20) Set your intentions around what you hope to build over the next six months. Try not to center these dreams too much on your relationships with others. These goals should be all about you.

Gemini (May 21 - June 21) Start the week with a stimulating brainstorming session with your friends. Whether you’re forming a study group, planning a collective vacation together, or tackling a major problem, you can solve anything together!

Cancer (June 22 - July 22) This month, you could find yourself on the receiving end of more leadership opportunities at work. Taking the reins when no one else wants to can help you gain the support and trust of your supervisors, though you might need to touch base with your assertive side.

Tired Of The Got To Go Feeling?
Pelvic floor muscles are the layer of muscles that support the pelvic organs and span the bottom of the pelvis. Strong pelvic floor muscles give you control over your bladder and bowel. Weakened pelvic floor muscles mean your internal organs are not fully supported and you may have difficulty controlling the release of urine.

What is EMSELLA
A breakthrough treatment for incontinence and confidence. This unique technology revolutionizes women’s intimate health and wellness by providing those suffering from incontinence with a completely non-invasive option.

How Does EMSELLA Work?
EMSELLA utilizes electromagnetic energy to deliver thousands of supramaximal pelvic floor muscle contractions in a single session. These contractions re-educate the muscles of incontinent patients.
